[redacted] Comments.

- (1) Information [redacted] indicated that units of the corps artillery brigade of the LXXIX Mtz Rifle Corps were stationed in the Putlitz Kaserne. They were previously seen to have had 76.2-mm guns and presumably 122-mm guns and 100-mm AT guns. [redacted] Information on the armament of this brigade was previously submitted. [redacted] The units of the brigade can be confirmed as stationed in Rostock until 8 June 1952. (2) The tent camp which allegedly had a capacity of about 1,000 soldiers is reported for the first time. The motor vehicle [redacted] seen at the Bergen Komendatura belong to the 1th AT Arty Brig (US), the 31st AAA Div, the 12th Cds Tank Div and the 2497th AAA Rest of the 11th Cds Mecz Div. (3) [redacted] the Wustrow firing range has been reoccupied since early June 1952. This agrees with the information contained in the present report. [redacted] (4) [redacted] it is concluded that the second train is identical with a train which, on 10 June 1952, was loaded with units of the unidentified AAA regiment of the LXXIX Mtz Rifle Corps in Burg. [redacted] (5) The two trains carried the medium AAA regiment and units of the light AAA regiment of the 32d AAA Div (US) from Kuestrin and, according to previous reports, went to Kroepelin on the Wustrow peninsula. [redacted] (6) The train carried units of the 9th Cds Tank Div and probably went to Neustrelitz.
